YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer; that is common knowledge; that your insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know; or as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

NON-DISCLOSURE If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the insurance contract in respect of a claim, or may cancel the insurance contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the insurance contract from its beginning.
